Re: United States v. Nesbeth, 15-CR-0018

Dear Mr. Dwyer:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter requesting that two sentencing memoranda in the above-referenced case (Docket Entries 34 and 39) be unsealed. Both your letter and this response will be filed on the docket.

I have directed the parties to respond to your request. The government has no objection, but defense counsel has asked for a short period of time to file a letter setting forth her objections, if any, to disclosure of specific portions of the memoranda. I will then rule on her objections.

I have asked my case manager to inform you of my ruling and, if applicable, to provide you with copies of the unsealed memoranda.

Sincerely, //
